

THE SOUND OF THE HEAVENS

Bbm

Bbm

I can hear the sound of the heavens

Bbm

I can hear the holy ones cry

Bbm

Echoing in my heart, echoing in my eyes

I can see the lightnings of heaven

I can feel the kingdom arise

Flashing in my heart

Flashing in my eyes

I can feel the heartbeat of heaven,

I can feel the fires rise

Burning in my heart, burning in my eyes

Bbm C# G# D#m

Beneath our feet the earth it trembles

As from our lips we resemble

The thunderous sound of declaration

Resounding with the voice of heaven

Burning lamps of revelation

With oil and leaves for healing nations

The eyes of all will see Your beauty

And in the temple we cry Glory
